

AMERICAN TROOPERS SLAIN IN ACTION

U.S. SOLDIERS AND MEXICANS ENGAGE IN BLOODY BATTLE

Score of Tenth Cavalrymen Reported Killed and Seventeen Captured—Mexicans Use Machine Gun With Deadly Effect—Mexican Dead May Reach Two Score—Americans Believed to Have Been Ambushed.

GENERAL GOMEZ IN COMMAND OF MEXICANS IS KILLED IN FIGHT

WASHINGTON, June 21.—General Funston reported late tonight that he had received official confirmation of a clash between Carranza and American troops early today near Carrizal, Mexico. He had no details of the incident however, except those provided by Mexican officials at Juarez.

General Funston transmitted to the war department the following report from General Bell at El Paso:

"There was a clash this morning at Carrizal near Villa Ahumada, between Carranza and American troops in which General Gomez and other Mexicans were killed, the number unknown. Number of Americans killed or wounded unknown.

"General Gomez sent a captain with an order to the American commander to go back, but the American commander said he was going to Villa Ahumada and opened fire on the Mexican captain, wounding him. Americans attacked General Gomez but were thrown back.

"Prisoners were sent to Chihuahua.

"Garcia says this was telephoned at request of General Gonzales.

"An American who was on the train today passing Villa Ahumada at 2:30 said he saw several dead Mexicans put on his train, among them, a dead Mexican general. There were also several Mexican wounded. He gathered from talk there that the fight was with American cavalry nine miles west and that the Americans were decoyed into a trap by the use of a Mexican flag of truce and they were then fired upon by machine guns. Report states our troops engaged were the tenth cavalry."

EL PASO, June 21.—American and Carranza troops fought a bloody battle today only a few hours after President Wilson's six thousand word rebuke yesterday to General Carranza had gone forward to Mexico City. With which side victory rested is not known.

The engagement took place in the Santo Domingo ranch near the Mexican town of Carrizal, which is nine miles southwest of Villa Ahumada, the Mexican field headquarters in Northern Chihuahua. The number of dead Americans or Mexicans are not definitely known, but nearly a score of General Pershing's men are said to have been killed and the Mexicans are said to have lost more than two score.

Seventeen Americans Captured.
Seventeen Americans are declared by Mexican officials to have been captured and to have been hurried to Chihuahua City under adequate guard. A machine gun used by the Mexicans is reported to have done heavy execution.

The Americans engaged are thought to have been members of a troop from the Tenth Cavalry, a negro regiment, returning from a scouting trip to Guzman. The size of the Mexican force, whose commander, General Felix Gomez was killed is not known.

Gonzales Keeps Story Secret.

News of the battle was received in Juarez early this afternoon by General Francisco Gonzales, Carranza commander of the military zone of the border. For some reason or other, General Gonzales kept the story secret until late in the afternoon when an American, J. C. Hubbell returning to the border from the interior brought to El Paso the news that he had seen numbers of Mexican dead along the Mexican Central railroad tracks at Villa Ahumada, and had been told that there had been an encounter with the "gringos."

Blames American Commander.

General Gonzales first step after confirming the news was to issue a statement placing the blame on the American commander. He charged that the American troops fired first on the Mexicans and that their shots were directed at a courier who had just presented to them a request that they retire.

American army officers declared absolute disbelief tonight in General Gonzales' assertions. The opinion was expressed that if the Americans fired on the Mexicans they did so because it was necessary in order to insure their own safety. General Trevino's recent warning to General Pershing not to send his troops east, south or west of their positions was recalled.

Quiet Maintained in El Paso.

Excitement spread in El Paso as extras were issued and the news become known. Quiet was maintained, however, in view of General Bell's frequent admonitions that his soldiers could take care of any situation that might arise. Mayor Lee issued a statement urging citizens to be calm. While awaiting instructions from headquarters at San Antonio General Bell kept his entire force in readiness for instant action.

In the meantime however, word came from Juarez that all was quiet and the news of the battle was widespread there.

Early Details from Mexicans.

At an early hour tonight the only official details of the engagement received here came from the Mexican side of the river. General Gonzales said that his information was transmitted to him from Villa Ahumada by Colonel Genoveso Rivas, who commanded the Mexicans after their leader, General Gomez, was slain. General Gonzales also gave the Mexican explanation of how the two forces came in contact. According to General Gonzales he was informed by General Gomez at Villa Ahumada last night of the presence of the Americans westward between Villa Ahumada and El Valle. He says he immediately instructed General Gomez to proceed to Santo Domingo ranch where the Americans were reported "in unknown force" and advise their commander to retire to their camp. This, he says, General Gomez did this morning. The American commander whose name was not given by General Gomez, is said to have replied that he was instructed to proceed to Villa Ahumada and must do so. The statement issued by the Juarez commander reads:

"Immediately upon learning of the presence of the American troops in the vicinity of Carrizal, General Felix Gomez despatched a messenger with a request that the American commander withdraw his command. When the American troops remained motionless he sent a second despatch bearer who was fired upon by the American troops, after he had delivered his message. The Americans immediately moved forward and attacked General Gomez' command.

"All the prisoners admitted that the blame should be put on the American commander for having ordered the attack. The prisoners were sent to Chihuahua City with the customary protection."

Mexicans Had Big Advantage.

Which ever side began the engagement, the Mexicans had the advantage, for they had provided themselves with a machine gun and this, is supposed to have done deadly execution in the ranks of the Americans. That the latter were not inefficient however, was proved by the number of Mexican dead and wounded removed to Villa Ahumada and witnessed by Americans coming

North on a train bound to Juarez.

Battle Lasted About an Hour.

The battle began about 10:30 a. m., and lasted not more than an hour. It apparently ended by both sides withdrawing. The failure of General Pershing to report on it, indicated that the American survivors had not yet returned to their base at an early hour tonight. A story brought to El Paso by J. C. Hubbell, an American who has been employed by the Compania Agricola at Bouquillas, bears out several of the details of the engagement presented by General Gonzales. Hubbell's story was corroborated by James Maxey, another American who also was on his way to El Paso from the interior. Hubbell and Maxey said that while their train was stopped they noticed a number of dead and wounded being brought in and were told there had been a battle.

Mexicans Tell Their Version.

They mentioned Mexican soldiers, who told them that several hundred Americans and 120 Mexicans had been engaged.

"The Mexican officers at Villa Ahumada treated us with the greatest courtesy," said Mr. Hubbell. "They answered our questions quietly and with no show of antipathy or excitement.

"According to the story they told us, the Mexican command was concealed in the underbrush when it discovered the American cavalrymen riding toward them over the sand. Gen. Felix Gomez, the Mexican commander, immediately sent a courier asking for a parley under a flag of truce with the American commander. The parley was arranged and as the Mexican leader and two aides started forward the Americans suddenly deployed in a semicircular skirmish line.

"General Gomez, apparently believing he was about to be attacked, raised his arm and signalled a machine gun in the rear to open fire on the Americans. The machine gun swept the cavalry ranks causing heavy losses.

"Immediately however, a detachment of American troopers dashed forward, under heavy fire in the center of the field where General Gomez and his staff were sitting on their horses. In the resultant encounter one of the cavalry killed the Mexican leader with his pistol, while the remainder of the Carrancista party escaped to their own lines."

Openly Boast of Ambush.

Hubbell and Maxey said that some of the Mexicans boasted that the Americans had been drawn into an ambush; their information was that the American dead number seventeen and that the Mexicans had taken forty prisoners.

Neither Hubbell nor Maxey was able to learn whether the Mexicans had retreated, it being pointed out that all of the Mexicans with whom they talked apparently left the field before the engagement had been completed. Late tonight preparations apparently were underway for the peaceful evacuation of Juarez, several troop trains were pulled in to the railroad yards ready for immediate use. Andres Garcia, Mexican consul in El Paso crossed the Rio Grande following the first train. The day following the first train. The day following the first train. The day following the first train.

Expect All Troops Friday

The infantry regiments will leave Chicago at half hour intervals beginning Thursday midnight. The downstate troops also will leave early Friday morning and it is expected that by noon Friday all the troops included in the mobilization order will have been assembled here.

Brig. Gen. Foster in Command

Brigadier General Jack Foster was assigned to the command of mobilization at Camp Lincoln, which includes both Camp Lincoln at which the cavalry, artillery and engineers are stationed and Camp Dunne at which the infantry will be stationed.

400 Raw Recruits in Camp

Of the 2,000 militiamen who arrived today approximately 400 are raw recruits who have enlisted in the last few days. They will be whipped into shape for actual war service by officers of the United States regular army. Among the latter who arrived today were Major Michael McNamee who will supervise the cavalry training and Captain James Romayne the target practice.

Wireless Experts Are Biggest Asset

Included in the second battalion of the field artillery is a squad of 35 wireless experts recruited from the electrical houses of Chicago. Many of these men in their private experiments have communicated with points as far distant as Honolulu and high army officers here tonight looked upon the squad as a valuable adjunct. Major McNamee and Colonel Foreman decided tonight to begin training the cavalry tomorrow morning. The troops will put in eight hours of hard work each day from 7 to 11 a. m. and from 1 to 5 p. m.

CAMP LINCOLN IS NOW A CITY OF TENTS

2,000 MILITIAMEN IN SPRINGFIELD READY FOR TRAINING

Governor Dunne Believes No Part of Troops Will Be Moved to Border Within Less Than Thirty Days

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 21.—What this morning was a parade ground at Camp Lincoln here tonight was a city of about 200 tents housing approximately 2,000 members of the Illinois National Guard who tomorrow will enter upon a course of training that will fit them for actual war service.

In view of the spreading of rumors that Illinois state troops may be ordered to the Mexican border within the next few days, Governor Edward F. Dunne, commander-in-chief of the Illinois troops, announced tonight that according to all information in his hands, no part of the troops will be moved to the border within less than thirty days. Preparations are being made to take care of the troops for at least that length of time and possibly for three months.

"Only in the event of a real battle, not a skirmish, between American and Mexican forces," said the governor, "would our militia be ordered south in the immediate future."

Men Prepared to Go

However, should the order to move to the border come even tonight, it would find the men and officers eager to go, and, according to members of the fifth and sixth infantry, the only troops not included in the mobilization ordered, Governor Dunne declared tonight that as soon as any part of the troops now encamped here is ordered south an effort will be made to bring the fifth and sixth to Camp Dunne at Springfield that they may get the training of mobilized troops, although nominally they will not have mobilized.

The troops at Camp Lincoln tonight included the following: The entire First Cavalry about 1200 men, first and second battalion of the field artillery, 700 men and Company A, engineers, about 100 men.

No Food at Camp Lincoln

Within six hours after the cavalry had detrained this afternoon the big brown pyramid tents were up, the camp stoves were smoking, Colonel Milton J. Foreman had established headquarters and an officers' meeting was called. Only one hitch in the preliminary arrangements marred the encampment. After a long march through the Chicago loop district, a restless sleep, aboard crowded trains, a five hour ride to Springfield and afternoon spent at hard labor pitching camp, the soldier boys, hundreds of them really boys in age, found nothing to eat at Camp Lincoln.

Shops Do Big Business

When the word was passed, there was a rush to the grocery stores, bakeries and candy shops such as the small merchants on the outskirts of Springfield have never enjoyed before. To avert a similar occurrence when the infantry regiments arrive Friday morning, General Dickson tonight ordered each regiment to have an advance detail of one officer and five men in Springfield at seven o'clock tomorrow that these men may receive the food supplies for their various regiments and have the food ready when the infantry arrive.

JURY WILL HEAR ORPET LOVE LETTERS

IMPORTANT RULING IS MADE BY JUDGE DONNELLY

Objections and Arguments By Defense as to Competency of Earliest Letters Occupy Much Time

WAUKEGAN, Ill., June 21.—The jury which is to decide whether William F. Orpet, University student, murdered Marion Lambert as charged, will hear read the letters which Orpet wrote to the school girl over a period of nearly a year.

This important ruling was made today by Judge Donnelly. Objections by the defense as to the competency of the earliest letters led to arguments and the citations of authorities which used up most of the time yesterday and today.

Letters Divided Into Two Series

The letters were divided into two series; those written before the school vacation of 1915, and those written afterward up to February. The earlier letters dealt in part with the illicit love between the two, and were ardent in tone. The later ones cooler and spoke of medicine which Orpet was to provide for Marion's supposed delicate condition.

Whole Series Ruled Necessary

The court said that he wished to exclude the earlier missives if possible for they were plainly prejudicial to the defendant and did not bear directly on the charge of murder, but State's Attorney Dady succeeded in establishing that the whole series was necessary to show the cooling of Orpet's affections, and to this extent establish motive for murder. The letters will be read tomorrow.

Statements Read to Jury

Testimony today dealt with Orpet's purported statements at the time of his arrest at Madison, and his so-called confession there. It was made to State's Attorney Dady, Walter McGuire, chief of police of Lake Forest, Sheriff Elvin Griffin of Waukegan, and it was copied in shorthand by Miss Harriet Wadsworth, who read it to the jury today. In substance it admitted meeting Marion by arrangement, telling her that all was over between them, and leaving her alone at the Three Oak trees.

"I did not hear a word or scream," ran the alleged confession. "She may have stood there watching me until I had gone, I didn't stop and look around."

Orpet's attorneys objected to the introduction of the document on the grounds that it was obtained under duress, although Sheriff Griffin testified that State's Attorney Dady warned Orpet it might be used against him. He quoted Orpet as saying "I don't care whether it is used against me or not. What I am going to say will be for me, not against me."

Newspaper Reporters Testify

Everett Friganza and Newbern Brown, newspaper reporters, testified that Orpet admitted to them that he was "practically engaged" to Celestia Youker at the time of Marion's death.

Chicago, June 21.—Plans for the establishment of four base hospital units in Chicago by the local branch of the American Red Cross were well under way today. John J. O'Connor, director of the Central Division of the Red Cross, announced a meeting of business men for Monday to devise methods of raising $200 for the institutions.

East St. Louis, Ill., June 21.—Samuel Hunter, an East St. Louis flour dealer and grain inspector, shot and killed Mrs. Laura Sawyer, mortally wounding Jacob Stich and then ended his own life late Tuesday night at Dahlgren, Ill., 87 miles from here. Jealousy over Mrs. Sawyer's affection and worry over the loss of a considerable fortune in speculation were the cause of the tragedy.

NOT TO BE FED IN CLASS ROOM

Providence, R. I., June 21.—Charles E. Hughes, Republican nominee for president today told the graduating class and alumni of Brown University that the American spirit was not to be fed in the class room by such false balancing that conviction was notorious by its absence but was to be expressed by men who have thought it all out and finally believe in something.

ANXIOUSLY AWAIT DETAILS OF CLASH

WASHINGTON OFFICIALS APPREHENSIVE AS TO FUTURE

Details of Battle Must Be Cleared Up Before Knowing Whether Crisis Has Been Precipitated

MENACE TO FRIENDLY RELATIONS

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Reports that American and Carranza troops had clashed aroused grave apprehension here tonight for future relations between the United States and the Mexican de facto government already strained almost to the breaking point.

Officials declined to make any prophecy as to the next step of the Washington government saying that until details of the incident had been cleared up it could not be determined whether a crisis had been precipitated. They made no effort to conceal their anxiety but were not ready to abandon hope that an official account of what happened at Carrizal would remove the more threatening elements of the situation.

May Have Been Misunderstanding.

Much depends it was indicated upon whether the clash was the result of General Carranza's determination to enforce his demand for withdrawal of American troops from Mexico, or merely detached incident, arising out of a misunderstanding between commanders. If it was a deliberate attempt to back up the Carranza edict by force, there seems little doubt that President Wilson will accept it as an act of war and make good his word in the latest communication to the de facto government in which he said that any such attempt would be followed by "the gravest consequences."

It was admitted on every hand that the incident in itself presented a grave menace to the continuance of friendly relations and brought the Mexican situation to perhaps the most serious stage it has assumed.

Credence Evidently Given Report.

President Wilson remained at his office until late tonight receiving such meager information on the such as was available. Secretary Baker was in close touch with the war department and the white house by telephone. There was every evidence that credence was given the report of the clash tho the report came from Mexican sources and there was full realization of what it might mean. The Mexican story of the fight as given to General Bell by Consul Garcia at El Paso was forwarded to the war department by General Funston without comment. The wording of the despatch led to the announcement by department officials that it contained a confirmation from American sources. A complete copy however, revealed that General Bell had no information except that given him by the Mexican consul.

Officials indicated they did not believe the consul's report that American troops had violated their orders and made an attack.

Will Undertake No Offensive.

There was no doubt at the war department that General Pershing would take immediate steps to relieve the detachment if it had been attacked but it was said that outside of efforts to review it he would undertake no offensive.

Officials continued to express confidence in the ability of General Pershing to maintain his position in any emergency. His column in Mexico is believed to number between 10,000 and 12,000 men.

Official advice reported that the American rejection of the demand for the recall of General Pershing's troops from Mexico was under consideration today by the first chief and his cabinet. Special Agent Rodgers who made the report was unable to forecast the action of the de facto.

From other sources it was learned that European diplomats are exerting pressure on Carranza to prevent him from going to war with the United States.

German Influences at Work?

Allied diplomatic representatives in Mexico believe that German influences have been working on Carranza in an effort to create a situation that might embarrass the enemies of the Central Powers.

The war department today notified that scores of native guard regiments are under arms as yet no marching orders for border have been given but will go before the week it out.

"It is quite certain," Secretary Baker said, "that some of the men will go to the border but whether that means in a two or more, I cannot say."

Private Executions.

The first strictly private execution in the history of Tampa, Fla., is to take place in the county jail there tomorrow. In the past executions have been conducted in the jail yard within the view of hundreds of spectators. The new rule is an indication of changing sentiment in the south and elsewhere, with reference to executions. Certainly there is no excuse for the public execution, with its brutalizing and demoralizing influence upon the spectators. Private executions and the air of horror and mystery that inevitably surrounds them have a much more salutary effect upon society than an execution witnessed by people controlled by morbid curiosity.

Germany Pleased With War Prospect.

Germany and the allied countries make no attempt to conceal their interest in the situation now pending between Mexico and the United States. There is no use in declaring that the Germans would like to see war come, tho there may be difficulty in proving that agents of the imperial government have been along the border inciting trouble. The motive for the German interest and desire is only natural, for they believe that if citizens of the United States were engaged in war with Mexico, a great part of the ammunition now being manufactured and shipped to England and her allies would be shipped to the Mexican border instead of reserved for the forces of the United States. Under all the circumstances who can blame Germany for this attitude.

Food Before Patriotism.

An American who has recently returned from Mexico after years of residence there, makes a declaration which is supported by the testimony of others familiar with Mexican conditions. He declares that the great majority of the people of common people in Mexico would lend their support to Americans if simply provided with food and clothing. Thousands upon thousands, according to this statement, have lately starved to death during recent months and untold thousands are now in weakened condition and suffering because of the lack of food.

So it may be that if Mexican war does come because of the pettiness or weakness of Carranza, that the conquest of the country will not be as long drawn out as many Americans believed, and the great mass of people may submit quietly when they find that "gringos" bring with them something to eat and wear. Unquestionably a large percentage of the Mexican population are mere beggars and their idea of patriotism is the satisfaction of their physical wants.

Looking Forward Only.

Hired Help

If you should have in your employ a useless sort of man or boy, and you're convinced he won't improve, but plug along the same old groove, just take him by the shoulder blade, and tell him, quietly, to fade. Don't jaw or argue by the day, but shoot the worthless weight away. If you would make your business win, you'll hire the man behind the glass, who finds a place in his work, and strives to be the model clerk.

You must have teamwork in your shop, or you will hear some object drop, and you can't work that splendid scheme, unless all hands are full of steam. One lazy grouch around the place, one frost with gloom upon his face, one kicker who is always sore, will give his microbes to a score, and by his anarchist harangues, will chill the spirits of the gang. So when he makes his maudlin moan, just take him by the collarbone, and push him gently from your door, and tell him to return no more.

DATES IN ILLINOIS HISTORY.

June 22, 1774—The King of England gave his assent to the Quebec Act, by which the Illinois country was made a part of Canada.

upon President Wilson for his action in recognizing the Carranza government. Undoubtedly that was a slip of the administration and Carranza's vacillating course has indicated conclusively that in general characteristics he resembles very closely other Mexican citizens, who have neither stable character or ability.

But at this time the people are practically with one mind ready to ignore the administration's mistake for the very good reason that now comes the appeal to loyalty and patriotism, and in the face of a common foe the view point is forward and not backward. So today the country presents the aspect of a united citizenship, ready to support the administration to the limit in dealing with Mexican affairs. There is no disposition to discuss whether or not the present brewing difficulties might have been avoided if different policies had been followed. For the present that is a thing of the past and the millions of American citizens are ready, as they always are in any emergency, to uphold the hands of the president of the United States.

Roosevelt and Hughes in 1908.

Since it is now generally understood that Colonel Roosevelt is to support Mr. Hughes in the coming campaign, interest now centers about the question as to whether the support will be of the active or passive kind. The story from Oyster Bay indicates that all that remains to make the colonel an active participant in behalf of the Hughes candidacy is an invitation from the former supreme court justice. If this little formality is all that separates the candidate from a very valuable advocate, it goes without saying that the invitation will be extended.

If Mr. Hughes does indicate to the colonel that his support will be greatly appreciated, the candidate can point out this is a case of reciprocity and can quote from a speech made in 1908 while he was governor of New York, in which he said, "By his vigorous administration, his virility, his broad humanity and his determined opposition to notorious abuses, our fellow citizen, the distinguished president of the republic, Theodore Roosevelt, has won the hearts of the people. We have not only his example but we know that he is and has been in cordial sympathy with every effort for efficient administration for the correction of evil and for the improvement of our laws." They say that Hughes and Roosevelt have not always been on the most friendly terms, but certainly Mr. Hughes in the language quoted manifested his very high regard for Mr. Roosevelt.

TO OUR BOYS OF ILLINOIS
Our country now is calling,
And every soldier boy
Has listened to the summons
When it called to Illinois.

There are mothers' prayers arising
From anguished hearts so deep;
There are sweethearts who are parting,
Their eyes too proud to weep.

We hear the tramp, tramping,
As the boys hasten forth,
To join the moving thousands
In the land that gave them birth.

Above them waves Old Glory,
Her colors gleaming far,
And on her field of azure,
Shines a star for Illinois.

The boys go marching forward
The cause they feel is just;
For the ensign of Columbia,
Must never trail in dust.

So we'll keep that banner floating,
O'er citadel and dome,
And let's keep our home lights
glowing,
Till our boys all come home.

JULY FOURTH ARRANGEMENTS
NOW PROGRESS RAPIDLY

Committee Gives Assurance Celebration
(Will Please the Public—Still More Attractions Planned if Funds are Available.

While all the arrangements for Fourth of July have not yet been completed, the program has been so well outlined that it is certain the celebration will be well worthy of Jacksonville people. Jeffries band has been secured for the entire day and will play in Central park in the morning and the early part of the afternoon. Then they will be transferred to Nichols park and will play at intervals all afternoon and at night. At 1 p. m. there will be a balloon ascension from Central park and shortly afterward the crowds are expected to go to Nichols park for the remaining features of the celebration. A baseball game has been arranged and of course there will be scores of picnic parties at Nichols park and refreshment stands will be ready to serve all. The fire works at night will be on an elaborate scale. These features constitute all that the committee has positively arranged for, but an effort is being made to secure some additional funds and if this succeeds there will be day fireworks and an athletic program. The committees are meeting with enthusiastic support everywhere and the indications are that the celebration this year will take on a special lot of interest and enthusiasm.

arms. In age they ranged from small boys, not as tall as their guns up to bent old men. Most of them were in ragged dress of the poor but some belonged to the better class and wore good clothes.

Warlike activity was first noticed at the railway yard where a string of freight cars lay coupled to several day coaches that bore the name of the army corps of the north. A number of men were employed there in stowing sacks of beans and flour, bales of forage and other army supplies. Late in the afternoon a rather large body of Mexican cavalry passed thru the town toward the hills. Many wagons filled with women and children were bound also in that direction. At sundown the soldiers of duty were loitering about the streets while the civilians sat on their doorsteps to enjoy the cool of the evening. A noticeable feature was the gaiety of the young officers. Altho beer is the only drink permitted to be sold in Juarez there was considerable drinking. But only the young officers appeared jubilant over the prospect of war. The older officers, when the chance of a peaceable solution was mentioned, would answer "Ojala" (May it be so).

No instance of any attempt to molest any American was reported during the day time. After dark no American is believed to have remained in Juarez.

"This shows how dangerous it is to bring American and Mexican troops in contact," said Mexican Consul Garcia tonight.

"But it need not lead to war. It may be treated as a regrettable incident. I am still optimistic."

"Consul Garcia said he would spend the night in Juarez, explaining that he might do more good there than on the American side.

"You can deny," he said, "that I am going to close the consulate in El Paso for I have received no such orders."

Altho the street car service from El Paso to Juarez has been frequently stopped at night when trouble looked imminent as two nights ago, the traffic continued as usual this evening.

At the international bridges there was no sign of excitement. Soldiers stationed there lounged on their rifles as usual. Mexicans who passed afoot and in street cars and some in automobile, met the usual search and passed on.

BELIEVES AMERICANS WERE AMBUSHED BY WHITE FLAG

Report Brought by American Indicates U. S. Troopers Were Treacherously Ambushed.

San Antonio, Texas, June 21.—General Pershing had been unable to get to General Funston late tonight any report of the Carrizal engagement, but there appeared no reason to doubt the report from Mexican sources that a serious engagement had taken place and there was little doubt that the Mexicans and a detachment of the tenth cavalry, a negro organization, had suffered heavily.

Await Official Report

Instead of the tension being broken by the clash, it was keyed still higher tonight and there appeared no probability that it would be lessened until the official report from General Pershing was received or until official news of undisputed aggression by the same Mexican troops is received. General Funston said he would send no special orders to General Bell commanding at El Paso or to General Pershing until he had received official news. The Mexican commander at Juarez, General Francisco Gonzales insisted that the American commander precipitated the fight by firing on the bearers of a white flag who were moving forward to parley. A report brought to El Paso late today by an American indicated that the Americans had been treacherously led into an ambush by the use of a white flag.

The meager details of the fight received by General Funston included the facts that General Felix Gomez commanding the Mexicans was among the killed that the casualties on both sides was considerable and the intimation that the Americans had fallen back.

It was admitted at army headquarters that General Funston's determination was to send any special orders to General Pershing or General Bell did not mean that swift punitive action would not be undertaken. May Have Taken Steps to Even Score.

It was regarded as not at all improbable that even already General Pershing may have taken steps to even the score. Many officers at department headquarters believed that if he had not already sent a heavy force towards Ahumada he would do so on receipt of news and the knowledge of the number of men and of their condition and state of preparedness left little room to doubt the drastic punishment he would mete out to General Trevino's troops unless specifically ordered to hold back.

From Brownsville to the Pacific General Funston's army of 40,000 was ready tonight to be hurried across the border and officers at department headquarters were counting the hours it would take to bring south units of the national guardsmen.

General Funston's latest information from General Pershing had contained no reference to any scouting party so far east of General Pershing's line of communication and it was with great surprise that he learned of the presence of any force near Carrizal.

Had Been Sent to Investigate

General Funston assumed, that the little force engaged with the Mexicans today had been sent by General Pershing to investigate rumors that General Trevino was sending westward from Villa Ahumada a heavy force. To reach Carrizal it was necessary for Americans to pass thru a long valley, almost a canyon, just before reaching Carrizal. It was regarded at General Funston's headquarters as probable that it was in this valley that the Americans were forced to meet the machine gun fire of Gomez' superior force.

That the Mexicans were mobilizing to the south of Naniquipa and on both of General Pershing's flanks, has been known for some time and recently there came reports that a heavy column was moving westward from Ahumada and another toward El Valle.

No Report From Gen. Pershing

General Funston and his chief of staff, Major Malvern Hill-Barnum, did not retire tonight until long after midnight no report from General Pershing had been received. It was pointed out that the survivors of the unfortunate expedition towards the east would have had to send the news by courier seventy miles.

WAR NEWS AT A GLANCE.

Fierce fighting, with the Germans generally the aggressors, is in progress between the Russians and Germans in Volhynia, along the Stokhod and Styr rivers and in the region lying between Lutsk and Vladimir-Volynski. The Russians, who had crossed the Styr and reached the village of Gruziatyn west of Kolki, entered the town and captured eleven officers, 400 men and six machine guns. In the fighting the town changed hands several times, but under a concentrated German artillery fire the Russians finally were driven back with the loss of 1,000 men made prisoners, Berlin reports.

Along the Stokhod near the village of Rajmiste the Germans delivered a heavy attack, which resolved itself later into hard hand-to-hand fighting in which the Russians according to Petrograd, forced the Germans to flee. Near Kiselin another heavy onslaught was stopped by the Russians and the Germans put to flight. Near Lokatchi, southeast of Vladimir-Volynski, Vienna reports the capture of 1,300 prisoners. North, west and northwest of Lutsk, vicious encounters are ensuing. Across the frontier in Galicia the statement in the region of Bucacz persists. In Bukowina, the Russians continue to drive the Austrians west and southwest. Petrograd announces that the prisoners taken by the Russians in Volhynia up to June 15th, aggregated 172,484.

The Germans claim success for their men on the northern part of the Russian front in the Dvinsk, and Dubatowka sectors with the infliction of heavy losses on the Russians in the latter region. On both sides of the Meuse river in the region of Verdun the Germans again launched strong attacks against the French positions but were everywhere repulsed by the French artillery. Except for intermittent bombardments there was comparative quiet on the other parts of the French front Wednesday.

Rome reports the capture of an Austrian position in the Posina valley southwest of Asiago, further progress by the Italians north of Frenzela Valley and the stopping of Austrian surprise attacks southwest of Asiago.

In the fighting in Asiatic Turkey and in German East Africa the Russian and British war offices record further victories for their forces against the Turks and Germans, respectively.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

In Other War Times

By Ensey Moore.
Member Illinois State Historical Society.

Thru the kindness of the Rev. Charles M. Eames, son of our city Historian, some old time souvenirs have been turned up, and turned over.

One is a newspaper called "The Convalescent," "The Pen is Mightier than the Sword."

The issue was No. 2, of Vol. 1, dated February 20, 1864. It was published at the U. S. General Hospital, Jefferson Barracks, Mo. Jefferson Barracks is twelve miles below St. Louis. The paper was a sheet of four pages, and of three columns to the page, being about 8 by 12 inches in size. It was to be published every Saturday. After the head, of the first column, with terms and address, is a roster of the officers of that post-hospital, not the whole place. Surgeon Jno. F. Randolph, U. S. A., was in charge of the hospital, with a Hospital and a Post Chaplain, and twelve Asst. Surgeons. Three other officers were on the roster.

After the roster, in the first column, comes an appreciation of "The Soldiers' Wives," by Fanny Fern. The second column is given up to a poem on "Shoddy." Shoddy was the rotten material out of which the contractors made cloth for the soldiers' clothes. Some selections fill up the third column.

The first column of the second page is the editorial, and reads as follows:

"The Soldier."

The man who leaves his home, family and business to follow the fortunes of the soldier, must have great inducements to repay the sacrifices consequent to an absence from his field of labor, from which after years of toil, perhaps, he at last has begun to reap the benefits. His reward will not likely prove pecuniary, for soldier's pay is small compared with what most of them are capable of earning in civil life; his fare of "hard tack" and bacon is no recompense for the home table; his canvas quarters are rather filthy and airy, by the side of even the "Squatters" shanty of the frontier; but his country, weighed in the scales with all these, overbalances them; and therein he sees the necessity of all these sacrifices. This is the case in the present war, with the country at stake and the fires of rebellion flaming on all sides, every true patriot sees the need of his services, and does not hesitate to enter the list because of the disadvantages and discomforts to result therefrom. On this his thoughts do not dwell, and in time becomes so accustomed to them that what were once discomforts and disadvantages change to ease and interest. His zeal for the welfare of the land of his birth or adoption outsteps personal interest; and his whole energy is engaged in the noble enterprise, at great risk of life and property.

But he lives and works for the future, with high hopes and great anticipations, he looks forward to the day (which seems not far distant) when he can with honor lay aside the implements of war, and once more adopt the ways of civil life, in the land, which his fathers fought and bled to establish, and which he has fought and bled to sustain, redeemed from machinations of a rebel foe, when every seceded state shall have resumed its former allegiance, and manufactures and commerce against progressing with former prosperity.

OYSTERS—We have received from Mr. E. Thompson, Sutter, a can of these delicious bivalves, which, without exaggeration, were the best that we have had the pleasure of testing this winter. By all means, purchase of him."

The rest of the second page, and most of the third page, is given up to contributions from the men, apparently. At the end of the third column, third page, is this sad statement: "List of soldiers who have died at this hospital during the week ending Feb. 19, 1864: Private Henry Barlow, Co. A., 12th Wis. Inf., died Feb. 15th, of Chronic Diarrhoea; Priv. Aaron Greenfield, Co. H., 4th Iowa Cav., died Feb. 15, of Chronic Diarrhoea."

Then follows this "Report of changes during the week ending Feb. 19, 1864:

Admitted, 123; returned to duty, 1; furloughed, 2; transferred to other hospitals, 0; discharged, 13; deserted, 0; died, 2; total, 19. Remaining in hospital, 590."

The last item on the page is a notice of a meeting of the J. B. Med. Assn., to discuss, "Acute Rheumatism."

Page four is mostly given up to clippings, but the third column has a list of patients admitted since Feb. 15, 1864, from Hospital Boat Charles McDougal. Only one name from Illinois is given, a member of the 53rd.

Under the head "Religious Notices," is given, "Divine service in the Chapel every Sabbath, at 10 1-2 a. m., by Rev. Dr. Fish, Chaplain, U. S. A."

At 2 p. m., by Rev. Samuel Pettigrew, Hospital Chaplain, U. S. A. Soldiers' Prayer Meeting daily, at 6 p. m.

Meeting for conference and prayer, Wednesday of each week, at 2 p. m."

Three local advertisements end the column and page.

Philharmonic Concert.

The second old paper is a program of a Philharmonic Concert, given by our local society, in Strawn's Hall, Mar. 21st, 1861. The society was assisted by the Orchestra from the Institution for the Blind; all under direction of Herman Strachauer. The first page states "Special attention is called to the national sentiment of the Programme. The names of many of the pieces will be hailed with pleasure by all who love the Union and the dear Flag of our country, the Stars and Stripes."

There were sixteen numbers on the bill, the soloists being Misses Anna Rawlings, Watson and Mr. Ramsey, Messrs. W. W. Jones, Eno Bulkley and Smith sang a quartette, and Misses Grace Dummer and Twining sang a duette.

The pianist was Mr. Strachauer. A grand finale was "The Star Spangled Banner," with Chorus and Orchestral accompaniment.

"Price of admission, 25 cents. Doors open at 6 1-2 o'clock. Concert to commence at 8 precisely."

Morgan Cadet Ball.

A third find is a dance card for the "Morgan Cadets' Grand Masquerade Ball, Thursday evening, February 7, 1878." There were twenty four dances. The Floor Committee was Wm. Harrison, John C. McBride and Wm. Gebelen. The first two, at least, were soldiers in the Union ranks, and Capt. Harrison still lives.

JAMES E. BABB WINS IMPUTANT CASE.

Former Jacksonville Attorney One of Group to Secure Rights for Mining Companies Before Idaho Utilities Commission.

The Lewistown (Idaho) Tribune in a recent issue mentions a ruling made by the Idaho utilities commission on the question of a number of mines in that state bringing their own power from a plant across the line in Montana. James E. Babb, formerly of this city, was one of the attorneys for the mines. The case involved a large sum and attracted a great deal of attention in the west because of the importance of the case and the prominence of the attorneys on both sides. The Tribune in reference to the case had the following:

"A wire received by James E. Babb yesterday advised him of a unanimous decision of the Idaho public utilities commission, written by Chairman A. P. Ramsted, dismissing complaint of Washington Water Power Co., which prayed that the Federal Hercules Inter-state Callahan, Tamarack, Cluster, Greenhill-Cleveland and other mines at Wallace be restrained from bringing their power over their own line for their private uses, from the Montana Power company plant at Thompson Falls, Montana, because none of defendants had procured a certificate from the commission to engage in the business of transmitting power and because complainant held such a certificate and had previously supplied power to these concerns. The Federal Mining company opened the fight for cheaper power in 1913 and built a transmission line into Montana over which the Federal company and its associates secure power at about $100,000 less annually than the former Washington Water Power rate and whereby Montana power companies walked off with a gross annual business of about $300,000 previously enjoyed by Washington Power company. The Washington company has since met the Montana rate, which has raised the net annual saving to the entire district of about $200,000 and the Washington Power company has now failed before the commission in its attempt to enforce its exclusive privilege against its competitor.

"The case was heard by the commission at Wallace in January and its next stage will be in the state supreme court unless the Washington company shall acquiesce.

"Mr. Babb was associated with Messrs. Featherstone, Wourns & Hanson, of Wallace, for the mining companies, and the Montana Power company was represented by Jess B. Hawley, of Boise, and L. O. Evans, of Butte, and the Washington company was represented by Port Russell and Carey Higgins, of Spokane, and John P. Gray, of Coeur d'Alene.

"The utility act provides one public service concern shall not invade the field of another but these mines are held not to be in a public service business, but securing power for their own private uses only.

"Other features of the case have already been before the supreme court and have gone there a second time in an application for permission to inspect the books and accounts, files and records of the Washington Water Power Company, which has so far been won by the mines both before the commission and the supreme court."

REDS WIN DOUBLE HEADER AND CUBS DROP FROM FIFTH PLACE

Cincinnati Takes First Game 4 to 3 and Second 3 to 2—Other National League Results.

Chicago, June 21.—Cincinnati twice defeated Chicago today and ousted the Cubs from fifth place. Toney's good pitching in the pinches and his own two-bagger which scored two runs were factors in Cincinnati's 4-3 victory in the first game. A feature was Griffith's throwing Archer out at first on a hit to right field. Lavender's wildness, Chicago errors and Moseley's clever slab work gave the Reds the second game, 3 to 2. The scores:

DETROIT GOES INTO TIE FOR FIRST PLACE BY BEATING NAPS

Coveleskie Holds Cleveland Bats—men to Three Scattered Hits—Other American League Scores.

Detroit, June 21.—Detroit went into a tie for first place by defeating Cleveland 3 to 0 today. As was the case yesterday, the game was marked by great fielding and pitching. Coveleskie held the visitors to three scattered hits and only two men reached second base on him.

Detroit won the game in the sixth inning. Cobb tripled and scored when Chapman threw Speaker's relay into the Tiger dugout. Veatch scored in the same inning on his single. Heilman's hit and Mura's out. Cobb also scored the Tigers run in the eighth inning. He doubled to right field bleachers and scored on two successive putouts at first. Heilman's fielding was noteworthy. He cut off several base hits, one of them by Speaker in the ninth inning.

YOUNG FOLKS' CORNER

What Boys Know.

All boys know that it is dangerous to go swimming during dog days, but the period of dog days may be narrowed to suit the natorial convenience of the individual. In other words, the dog days rule may be suspended by a vote of a good sized crowd of youngsters unable to resist the purling lure of the stream.

The danger from snakes and turtles while swimming does not deter youngsters, for it is a well known fact that a snake cannot bite under water, for the simple reason that the minute it opens its mouth to nab the unsuspecting swimmer it chokes. The same rule applies to turtles.

Another bit of swimming lore is the remedy of boyhood for water in the ears. A flat, sun warmed stone will draw all water right out of the ear of the boy who seeks relief.

The universal knowledge of boys extends well into the field of materia medica. A bee sting or an insect's bite may be instantaneously cured by placing the mingled juices of three weeds—any three—upon the discomfited portion of the anatomy. Ordinary cobweb is said to be a means of stopping the flow of blood when the jackknife goes wrong, but it is dangerous and should not be used.

Cured of Stoning Birds.

"Chief Grizzly Bear," who is Charles L. Smith, old time hunter, scout, trailer and guide of the Rocky mountains, is chief scout of Allegheny county, Pa.,
and assistant scout executive of the Pittsburgh Boy Scouts of America.

Grizzly Smith, as the boys call him, says that the new federal law against killing migratory birds is already showing good results.

"But a bigger cause for the increase of wild birds is the systematic teaching of bird life conservation in the schools," he says. "How do the boy scouts help? Well, this spring we heard of an instance.

"A boy had been caught throwing a stone at a mother robin. The scouts surrounded him, took him down over a bank to a brush pile, and when he came up he expressed the desire never to throw another stone at a bird.

"Our investigators asked the boys what they did to him. 'Nothing,' they said. 'But how did you convert him?'
'Oh, we just threw him on the brush heap and lambasted him till he promised never to throw a stone again.'"

Riddles.

What goes most against a farmer's grain? The reaping machine.

What relation is that child to its own father who is not its own father's own son? His daughter.

What does a young lady do when she gets into church? Looks out the hims (hymns).

What beats a good wife? A bad husband.

Why is life the greatest of riddles?
Because we must all give it up.

Why is a lady's dishabille like a postman? Because it's a morning wrapper.

What are greatest obstacles to a Russian invasion of Turkey? The balkin' (Balkan) mountains.

Hide In Sight.

Among games of search this is popular. The greater part of the company being sent out of the room, a thimble or other small object previously decided upon must be placed where it will not be noticed and yet be in plain sight when once the attention is directed to it.

As each of the party discovers the thimble he does not give any clue to its whereabouts by looks or actions, but indicates that he has found it by saying, "Rorum, torum, corum," and quietly sitting down, leaving the rest of the party to continue the search.
The last one to find it must pay a forfeit for slowness.

A Jingling Match.

The jingling match used to be very popular at the English country fairs.
A large circle inclosed by a rope was occupied by nine or ten people, and all except one were blindfolded. This one was called the "Jingler," because he held in his hand a small bell, which he rang incessantly. His companions, following the sound of the bell, tried to catch him. If at the end of an alloted time he was not caught he received a prize; otherwise the prize went to the catcher.

How It Happened.

Now up to that time, so it is said,
all the squirrels of the woodland were red.

And that is the way
The first became gray—
it happened, dear, just as you've read.

A red squirrel, while lunching one day,
Saw a boy with a gun pass his way.
Alas for his plight!
The shock and the fright
Turned his red hair entirely gray.

STOCK QUOTATIONS AGAIN SLUMP

Mexican Situation Depresses Financial Markets and Liquidation Is Renewed After Day's Respite.

New York, June 21.—After a day's respite the Mexican situation again loomed ominously over the financial markets, with concurrent depression in quoted values. Overnight developments bearing upon affairs across the border were regarded as extremely favorable, so much so that Mexicans as a group were among the strongest issues at the opening.

At midday however, and for the balance of the session, Wall street was alive with rumors of the most disquieting character and Monday's liquidation was renewed, tho on a more moderate scale.

The metal issues manifested acute weakness, especially zinc shares, in which extreme recessions ranged from 3 to 6 points. Coppers suffered less severely, altho Greene Cananea, whose mines were again forced to suspend operations, yielded 2 1/2 points. Mexican Petroleum reacted 3 1/2 from its rise of 2 1/2 with an extreme reversal of 2 1/2 for American Smelting.

Texas company and California
Petroleum were offered at more moderate recessions.

Rails averaged losses of a point,
except in some of the minor western and southwestern issues, for which a renewal of the recent inquiry was observed.

Rock Island issues were the outstanding features of the session, the common stock being in steady demand at an advance of 3 points, while the debenture 5s rose 3 1/2 to 6 1/2. Shipping shares were again in favor of the prospects of an early reorganization, but suffered from profit-taking. Total sales amounted to 593,000 shares.

Aside from Rock Island and Marine issues, the bond market was irregular to heavy. Total sales par value aggregated $4,380,000.

United States bonds were unchanged on call, but on actual sales
the coupon 4s declined 1 per cent.

WHEAT PRICES AVERAGE LOWER

Corn and Oat Quotations Also Drop—Provisions Score Net Advance.

WHEAT PRICES AVERAGE LOWER

Corn and Oat Quotations Also Drop—Provisions Score Net Advance.

Chicago, June 21.—Wheat prices showed much nervousness today, and averaged lower, largely as a result of word of an important failure in London. The close here was unsettled, 1/2 to 3/4 down, with July at $1.03@1.03 1/2 and September at $1.05 1/2.

Corn lost 1/4¢ to 3/4¢ and oats 1/2 to 3/4¢. Provisions scored a net advance of 10¢ to 8 1/2¢, the latter in pork.

Lowest prices of the day in wheat came shortly after the opening of business when the bulls were most disconcerted by a fresh drop in Liverpool quotations regardless of an upturn in American markets yesterday. Better harvest weather in Kansas and Oklahoma tended further to handicap the bulls and so too did assertions of a leading expert that the combined promise of the domestic spring and winter crops was materially greater now than on June 1st. Forecasts of rain over nearly the entire wheat belt gave sufficient reason for a number of attempts to rally the market. Another bullish factor was the lifting of hedges here as a result of large Canadian exports. On all the upturns however, liberal selling developed and caused advances to disappear. Cold wet weather and lack of sunshine forced some advances in corn, but the weakness of wheat proved ultimately more than offset. Besides, reports were current that country acceptances of bids from here had increased.

Oats eased off with other grain. Crop advices remained favorable.

Higher prices on hogs carried provisions up. In addition export demand was a noticeable element of strength.

New Discovery Stops Dandruff

"Vola-Vita," Great Hair Discovery.
Vola-Vita is the new hair surprise to millions. It eradicates dandruff in only a few weeks' time to eradicate dandruff. Vola-Vita, actually stops it. There is only one way to eradicate dandruff, and that is to kill the dandruff germ.

Vola-Vita kills the dandruff germ quickly and thoroughly. It has been a common occurrence for Vola-Vita in only a few weeks' time to eradicate dandruff in cases so severe that the scalp was one mass of scaly crusts, falling like a snow-storm when the hair would be disheveled with the fingers.

Hair has been analyzed and is found to contain five vital substances. Unless these are in correct quantities, hair loses its vigor. It dies, falls out, turns gray, dandruff and baldness result. When the missing substances are restored, a remarkable change results. Vola-Vita restores these missing substances so wonderfully that hair quickly begins to grow lavishly, even on shiny bald heads, dandruff promptly and surely vanishes, and more remarkable still, the original color of the hair—whether it was black, brown or red—is restored to any gray, faded or bleached hair, without dye or stain.

Vola-Vita contains no alcohol to dry up hair secretions and induce hair growth. There is no other hair treatment in the world like it. Satisfaction guaranteed.

"You certainly have a preparation that performed a miracle in my case. My head has been a perfect crust of dandruff and when I combed it my wife invited me out on the back porch. After three applications of Vola-Vita my head was as clear of dandruff as the palm of my hand."—C. D. Clem, Chanute, Kans.

Vola-Vita is sold at all drug stores, $1.00 a bottle, or sent direct by Vola-Vita Co., Chicago, Ill. Sold in Jacksonville by J. A. Obermeyer & Son, Lee P. Allcott, Armstrongs Drug Store, Coover & Shreve, J. A. Long, Gilbert's Pharmacy and C. L. DePew.

FAMOUS BRIDGES.

The Highest, Largest and Most Ornate Structures of Their Kind.

The biggest bridge in the world is the Forth bridge. The British navy can pass under it, and its biggest dreadnaught looks like a pygmy in comparison.

The highest bridge in the world is the wonderful single span which crosses the gorge discovered by Livingston, into which the mighty Zambezi leaps in a fall only matched by Niagara. This light, airy looking structure is 400 feet above the river bed, so that the dome of St. Paul's could comfortably stand beneath it.

The longest single span in the world is the span of Brooklyn bridge. It is a suspension bridge, and its supporting towers are 1,000 feet apart. Imagine the strength of the cables capable of supporting such a terrific dead weight, to which add the surging traffic of two vast cities.

The two longest bridges in the world are the Tay bridge in Scotland and the great bridge which carries the railway across the St. Lawrence at Montreal.

The most ornate bridge in the world is the Tower bridge across the Thames. In fact, it is perhaps the most beautiful bridge in existence. It is unique, too, in that it is both a girder bridge and a suspension bridge and is also like the ancient drawbridges of romance.

Its cost was £1,500,000, which is just about half the amount the Forth bridge cost.—London Chronicle.

INFLATION AS A DEFENSE.

Easy For the Puffer Fish to Bait Its Natural Enemies.

The puffer fish affords a novel example of the way nature sometimes works to protect her creatures. The many different species inhabit all tropical and other warm seas and certain large rivers. Few of them reach a length of more than two feet.

The peculiar characteristic common to all of them is their ability to inflate themselves with air or water until they become almost spherical in shape. The air or water that fills the abdomen or the esophageal sac is retained by a valve in the throat and can be discharged almost instantly.

A few good sized scup were placed in one of the exhibition tanks of the New York Zoological society with a dozen puffers about two inches long. The hungry scup at once attacked the puffers, but in an instant every puffer inflated itself so completely with water that it became almost globular. All the scup could do was to knock them about like toy balloons, too big to be swallowed, too smooth to afford any hold to the jaws.

Puffers that become frightened near the surface of the sea and are inflated with air sometimes drift ashore, where they roll along the sands until they die and are dried by the sun and wind. The Japanese make lanterns of their dried inflated bodies, for the stretched skin is as transparent as oiled paper.—Youth's Companion.

Locating Icebergs.

The captain of an ocean steamer in most cases finds out when his vessel is approaching an iceberg from the men down in the engine room. That sounds queer, but it is a fact nevertheless. It appears that when a steamship enters water considerably colder than that through which it has been going its propeller runs faster. Such water usually surrounds the vicinity of icebergs for many miles. When the propeller's action therefore is accelerated without the steam power being increased word is passed up to the officer on the bridge that icebergs may be expected, and a close lookout for them is established. There are natural reasons for the propeller acting in this way, and sea captains will assert the same thing.

One Good In Flimsy Houses.

The Japanese have an easier time than their confederates in Europe. Crime in the land of the chrysanthemum is almost limited to theft and cases of bodily harm resulting from street brawls. It is next to impossible, the chief of the Tokyo police says, for a murder to be committed without some one hearing of it at the moment. This is due to the fact that the houses are composed of paper and bamboo, so any noise in a house occasioned by robbers or assassins would not fail to attract the attention of neighbors.—Dundee Advertiser.

No Hope For Them.

"Some folks fuss with the world because it won't turn to look at them," says a Georgia philosopher, "but if it should stop to hear their complaints they'd soon be fussing because it doesn't talk back. There's no pleasing them this side of heaven, and even up there the angels wouldn't know how to make 'em feel at home."—Atlanta Constitution.

Taken at His Word.

He tatter marriage!—What! You have no fortune? You said over and over again that you were afraid some one would marry you for your money. She—Yes, and you said over and over again that you would be happy with me if I hadn't a cent. Well, I haven't a cent.

Too Busy.

"When a cook is making her bread she is unlike the rest of the world in one particular."
"What is that?"
"She does not want her friends to come to her in her hour of knead."—Baltimore American.

Good actions ennoble us, and we are the sons of our own deeds.—Cervantes

Congregationalism in Early Illinois

By Hon. Thomas C. McMillan

In 1918 Illinois will celebrate the first centennial of its admission as a state into the Union. Our national histories designate the period in which this event occurred as "The Era of Good Feeling."

It will be remembered that, in 1784, the Continental Congress passed an act, drafted by a committee of which Thomas Jefferson was chairman, for the temporary government of the Northwest Territory. As it proved unsatisfactory in several respects, additional legislation was considered desirable.

On July 13, 1787, the historic ordinance was adopted by the Congress. This notable instrument contained six articles, which guaranteed: (1) The right of freedom of worship and religion; (2) the right to the benefit of habeas corpus and trial by jury, to proportional representation and to protection of liberty and property; (3) that "religion, morality and knowledge, being necessary to good government and the happiness of mankind, schools and the means of education shall forever be encouraged;" (4) that the states formed within the territory "shall forever remain a part of this Confederacy of the United States of America;" (5) that the boundaries of the states to be formed therein were prescribed, and the conditions of their admission set forth; and (6) most significant of all, that "there shall be neither slavery nor involuntary servitude in the said territory, otherwise than in the punishment of crimes, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted."

This ordinance has been termed "Our Second Declaration of Independence." A careful study of its several sections is earnestly advised, as upon their provisions hinged, in an emphatic sense, the life of this Republic, especially during some of the years following the Missouri Compromise of 1820.

In the course of time, the importance of this bill of rights was more and more manifest; and naturally it followed that the question of its authorship came to be a matter of moment. It was not, however, until comparatively recent years that this was satisfactorily answered. The evidence now appears to be convincing that to Rev. Manasseh Cutler, a man of Massachusetts Puritan stock, a graduate of Yale, a Congregational minister, a scientist and a statesman, is largely, if not wholly, due the credit of constructing, and securing the passage of, this masterpiece of far-seeing and liberal legislation, out of which grew the free states of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin, and whose provisions have since been applied to all the territories of the United States north of latitude 36 degrees and 40 minutes.

Our history, both as a territory and as a state, reveals how much Illinois owes to the pioneer missionaries. Their self-sacrificing and splendidly constructive labors have entered into every part of Illinois' religious, political, educational, commercial and social life and development. By their vision and unselfish service the church and the school grew up side by side with the home of the early settler.

In the formative period of Illinois Congregationalism had no inconsiderable share. We recall with thankfulness the blazing trail of the trail, the preparing of the way, in the then frontier settlements, which fell to the lot of the stalwart ministers and to the churches of our faith and order.

We are reminded of that great and goodly and Godly company of ministers and educators of our denominational family, whose lives and labors in our statehood years were unreservedly devoted to the upbuilding of commonwealth and church, of school and college, of social order, and of righteousness which alone exalteth a nation.

We remember with satisfaction the inestimable contribution made to our educational establishment by the "Yale Band" in the founding, in 1829, of Illinois college. The names of the seven young men, then students of Yale College, who entered into a compact to devote their lives to the promotion of Christian education in the West, especially in Illinois, should be familiar in every Congregational, indeed in every Christian, household throughout this entire commonwealth. These seven were: Theron Baldwin, John F. Brooks, Mason Grosvenor, Eliza Jenney, William Kirby, Julian M. Sturtevant, Asa Turner.

Doctor Sturtevant, one of the giants of those days, for two-and-thirty years was president of Illinois college, and for fifty-six years he was a member of the faculty of that institution. His students transplanted to their home communities those seeds of liberty, equality and fraternity which were sown in Jacksonville, and which have produced a never-ending harvest throughout ever-widening fertile fields.

When President Lincoln under the sunless skies of the American conflict, was carrying the heavy burdens of this nation, his own great arm leaned for support upon no state executive more, and he was upheld by none more loyally and more effectively, than War Governor Richard Yates, who was a member of the first class graduated by Illinois College, where, under the sainted Sturtevant, he had been taught, and had learned, the lessons of freedom, of which Congregationalism stood as the recognized champion, crying aloud, and sparing not, until the last slaver's ship had been driven from the high seas, and the unspeakable degradation of the human auction-block had ceased to exist, and the awful echoes of the lash on the back of the bondman had forever died away in this Christian land.

Intimately connected with, and as a direct result of, this New England training in our College of the Prairies were the life and services of one of the most distinguished educators of this state. Dr. Newton Bateman also was an alumnus of "Old Illinois." For fourteen years he was state superintendent of public instruction, a friend of the martyr Emancipator, and long the honored president of Knox College. To him more than to any other except perhaps Governor Joseph Duncan Illinois is indebted for the large and liberal public school laws and system which we enjoy today. Doctor Bateman was one of the three men who prepared the measure adopted by the Congress creating the National Bureau of Education.

As state superintendent, his official reports, which have been translated into a number of European languages, are invaluable contributions to our public, and too often unread, records; and, for breadth of view, richness of reference, cogency, practical suggestion and unvarying devoutness, these have never been equaled in the annals of this state.

And what shall we say more? For the time would fail to tell of Edward Beecher, and Truman M. Post, and Horatio Root, and Salmon Gridley, and John M. Ellis, and Thomas Lipincott, and Cyrus L. Watson, and the two Lovejoys (Owen and Elijah) and Aratus Kent, and Samuel Adams, and Ichabod Coddling, and H. H. Kellogg, and George W. Gale, and later of J. B. Turner, and Flavel Bascom, and Jonathan Blanchard, and Richard Edwards, and W. W. Patton, and E. P. Goodwin, and S. C. Bartlett and George N. Boardman, and Franklin W. Fliske, and Joseph E. Roy, and G. S. F. Savage, and Edward A. Tanner, and James Tompkins, and of elect-laymen, not a few, like Philo Carpenter, and Benjamin Godfrey, and William Talcott, and Ralph Emerson, and C. G. Hammond, and William Keyes and James W. Scoville, and Zebina Eastmann, and E. W. Blanchford, and D. K. Pearsons, who thru faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, waxed valiant in fight, and who have left an imperishable heritage of lives well lived, and of work well done, for God and for humanity.

The name of J. B. Turner has been mentioned. More should be said. Professor Jonathan Baldwin Turner was born in Templeton, Mass.; graduated from Yale in 1833 and that year came to Illinois college, serving for many years in its faculty; became deeply interested in scientific agriculture; introduced the Osage orange as a hedge-plant in Illinois in other western states where timber was scarce; about 1850, began the study of a system of industrial education, which, after great labor and much discouragement, was adopted by the United States Congress in 1862 and approved by President Lincoln, which act made liberal public land grants for the establishment and maintenance of what were designated "Industrial Colleges," and "Universities," and which developed into the western state universities, and especially the University of Illinois. In this movement he had a number of cordial and efficient coadjutors; but to his own untiring efforts is due the credit of this great achievement.

But the field is too vast, its materials are too varied and valuable, and the ministerial and lay-state men of our Congregational circle are too numerous for a paper of this nature and scope even to catalogue, least of all fittingly to characterize.

In view, therefore, of our state's approaching first centennial, it is altogether fitting that the Illinois Congregational Conference, in its annual session in Rogers Park Church, Chicago, should have appointed a committee to consider the subject of our denominational history in Illinois, and to submit, at the session of 1917, its report, with such recommendations as it may deem proper, for the suitable celebration, in 1918, of the achievements of the organizers of our colleges, of our seminaries, of the University of Illinois, and of such other institutions and enterprises in this state with which their lives were inseparably connected.

The Story of a Famous Hymn.
The famous hymn beginning "God moves in a mysterious way," known as "Cowper's Hymn," had its origin as follows: Cowper was all his life the victim of melancholia and more than once attempted suicide. One day, bent upon destroying himself, he got into a cab and ordered the driver to take him to a certain point on the river where he intended to drown himself. The cabman, noticing his strange appearance and feeling that all might not be right with him, drove him about the city and finally stopped in front of the poet's door. Stepping out and recognizing the old familiar surroundings and shocked at the thought of his narrow escape, Cowper exclaimed, "God moves in a mysterious way his wonders to perform," and, rushing in, immediately composed the immortal hymn.

The Louvre.
The Louvre dates away back to the reign of Dagobert in 628. In 1204 it was a prison and in 1304 was made into a library. The new building was begun by Francis I. in 1528 and enlarged and adorned by successive kings, principally by Louis XIV. But it was Napoleon I. who gave the Louvre its real glory. Turning it into a museum, Napoleon deposited in it the finest collection of paintings, statues and art treasures known in the world. The magnificent buildings of the new Louvre were begun by Napoleon I. and completed by Napoleon III. about 1857.

May We You Know—
The man who always asks, "What day's today?" "What time is it?" when there is a clock on the wall as big as a full moon, with a calendar under it. And who never, never, never has a match.

And who always borrows your pencil and takes it away.
And who never looks up anything he wants to know, but comes to you at your busiest hour and asks you.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Nature's Eloquence.
There is eloquence in the tongueless wind and a melody in the flowing brooks and the rustling of the reeds beside them which, by their inescapable relation to something within the soul, awaken the spirits to a dance of breathless rapture.—Shelby.

A BATHLESS AGE.

For a Thousand Years the People of Europe Went Unwashed.

When Egypt, Greece and Rome were at the height of their ancient power their citizens made bathing a social function, a municipal duty and a religious observance. The public baths of these nations were magnificent architecturally and important as centers of hygiene and municipal sentiment.

With the decadence of these countries the world seems to have reverted to a period of mental sloth and physical uncleanness. As an authority on the matter puts it:

"For 1,000 years there was not a man or woman in Europe that ever took a bath. If the historian of these times, Michelet, is to be believed, The ancient love of the bath seemed to have disappeared from off the land."

"There was no Greece or Rome to hold up the ensign of cleanliness to the nations of Europe. Small wonder that the people of the continent became physical decadents, as indeed they were in spite of tradition to the contrary."

"It is not strange that there came the awful epidemics that cut off one-fourth of the population of Europe—the spotted plague, the black death, the sweating sickness and the terrible mental epidemics that followed in their train—the dancing mania, the mewing mania and the biting mania."

"The bath was banished and fifth was almost defiled. Indeed, it was then thought that the

TO PRESERVE THE HAIR

MASTER IN CHANCERY

FINDS FOR MRS. OREAR

When your child is grown, the condition of and the amount of his or her hair will depend largely upon the way it is cared for now.

The human hair is composed of about 175,000 delicate oil plants.

Ordinary soaps and shampoos will soon destroy the natural oil and the fatty roots of these plants making the hair dry and brittle or destroying it entirely. EVERY WEEK SHAMPOO is an Anti-Septic Oil Shampoo that cleanses and purifies the scalp thoroughly and leaves the hair just as nature intended, soft, fluffy, silky, and the scalp slightly moist with oil, but no surplus oil in the hair.

If men would use EVERY WEEK ANTI-SEPTIC OIL SHAMPOO instead of the strong alkali shampoos which are so commonly used, they would preserve their hair rather than invite baldness. EVERY WEEK SHAMPOO dissolves and removes the dandruff (dry or oily), opens the hair cells, feeds and strengthens the hair roots and leaves the hair clean, soft, fluffy and the scalp healthy. A weekly application for men and children and every other week for women keeps the scalp clean, healthy and the hair in excellent condition.

EVERY WEEK ANTI-SEPTIC OIL SHAMPOO contains both mineral and coconut oils which cleanse the scalp and give the hair plant the oil which is required. It lathers freely removes any surplus oil, but does not remove the natural oil which healthy hair requires.

ion was made for her in case of illness or serious catastrophe of any kind. The remainder of the income from the estate was to be paid to Mrs. Browning during her lifetime and at her death she was to have the right to dispose of one-half of the realty. Subsequent to the death of Mrs. Orear the funds available from the sale of the other half of the property were to be used in the payment of bequests to certain religious and philanthropic organizations.

The effect of the master's report, if upheld by the courts, will be to give Mrs. Orear one-half interest in the real estate, or 320 acres of land. Mrs. Browning would then receive the income from one-half of the property during her lifetime and at her death could dispose by will of one-half of this property, or one-fourth of the estate as it now stands. The bequests to the various religious and philanthropic organizations would also necessarily be cut down from the figures indicated in the will. The hearing before the master has been going on at intervals for months past and the written record of the case occupies hundreds of pages. After the final evidence was taken Mr. Clark spent some weeks in going over the evidence before writing his opinion.

In the proceeding Mrs. Orear has been represented by Bellatti, Bellatti & Moriarty, the Farmers State Bank & Trust company by Kirov, Wilson & Brockhouse, and the various organizations by Worthington, Reeve & Green. The text of Mr. Clark's opinion is printed in full, as the case is of such local interest. Mr. Browning was one of the most honored citizens Jacksonville ever had and was accounted an exceptionally able banker and business man. His sister, Mrs. Orear, has also held a high place in the esteem of the community, as has his wife, Mrs. Ella H. Browning, during the years of her residence in Jacksonville.

I, John F. Clark, by order of this court appointed special Master in Chancery in above cause, to take and report the evidence together with my conclusions, do make the following report. The foregoing evidence herewith filed was all the evidence taken and produced before me in said cause.

From the evidence introduced in this cause I find that D. Rees Browning, after the Browning family came to Illinois, told John S. Reese, his cousin, that he and his sister Sallie Browning and his brother, Marcus E. Browning Jr., were running a dairy and truck garden, that his brother and sister were doing the work; he was clerking at one time in the Post office and at other times in the bank; and that they were saving their money and putting it in to buy lands with that his brother and sister did all the work in the dairy business and the gardening, he was clerking received seventy five dollars per month, afterwards more and afterwards less; that the money came in was all invested in lands; that they were saving all their money to buy lands with—they were buying small parcels—eighty acres at a time; that the land was deeded to him because it was convenient to make papers necessary without more signing than this, his sister Sallie and brother were full partners with him in the lands; that his sister Sallie did as much work as he did; that, after the death of Marcus E. Browning, Jr. he told John S. Reese that he and Sallie were saving their money, putting it in the bank and paying for land; that he settled up with his tenants and put the money in the bank to his credit to buy more land for himself and his sister; that he and his sister were full partners in it, these conversations continued up to six or seven years ago, probably less.

I further find that, in about the year 1900 D. Rees Browning told Chester E. Reese in the presence of his brother, Wallace K. Reese, that it was not due to his efforts alone that he had accumulated so much land and wealth, but that it was as much, if not more, to the efforts of his sister Sallie; that she had worked as hard or harder than he had, and she had put effort into it and had put her money as well as her time; that she was a full partner in everything he owned; that she had been very frugal all the way through life; that she had frequently gone without the necessities of life to help pay for the land that they owned jointly.

I further find that D. Rees Browning stated to Anna Belle Reese, about the year 1900, that his sister Sallie was trying to get everything together to put in some lands that we are acquiring; that Sallie and I will be equal partners in our land; that in conversations with John S. Reese and Anna Belle Reese he repeatedly told them that he and his sister Sallie were partners and they had saved all their money to put into lands.

I further find that D. Rees Browning, in a conversation with Elvina Neighbors, stated to her that he and his sister Sallie had worked and saved their little earnings together and they were in partnership in lands, that "Sallie had worked like a slave."

I further find that on September 5th, 1892, Henry C. Hammond and wife conveyed to D. Rees Browning by warranty deed, all that part of lot thirty nine (39) in College Grove addition to the city of Jacksonville, Morgan County, Illinois, included within the following limits, to-wit: Beginning at the south west corner of said lot thirty-nine (39), extending eastward to a point half way between City Place and Asylum street, thence northward two hundred and eleven (211) feet, thence westward to City Place, thence southward to the point of departure.

I further find that on the 22nd day of March, 1899, J. H. Osborne as Receiver of the Central Illinois

Banking and Savings Association of Jacksonville, Illinois in consideration of Ten Thousand Six Hundred and Sixty Dollars ($10,660.00) conveyed and quit-claimed to D. Rees Browning, the following real estate situated in Morgan County, Illinois, to-wit: The North East quarter of Section Four (4) in Township Fourteen (14) North and Range Eight (8) West of the Third Principal Meridian, containing One Hundred Sixty Four (164) acres, more or less. The above consideration of Ten Thousand Six Hundred Sixty-Six is paid as follows: Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00) cash in hand paid. The balance in yearly payments as evidenced by five promissory notes of the party of the second part of even date with the deed, one note for One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) payable on or before one year after date; one for Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) payable on or before two years after date; one for $1,500 payable on or before three years after date; one for Fifteen Hundred Dollars ($1,500) payable on or before four years after date; and one for Sixteen Hundred and Sixty Dollars payable on or before five years after date, with interest on each note from date until paid at six per cent. per annum payable annually. A vendor's lien reserved to secure the payments of said notes.

I further find that William Berchold, a bachelor, conveyed to D. Rees Browning, on the 1st day of March, 1901, the following described real estate, in Morgan County, Illinois, to-wit: The South half of the South east quarter of Section Thirty Three (33) in Township Fifteen (15) North and Range Eight (8) West of the Third Principal Meridian, for the consideration of forty seven hundred dollars cash in hand and the assumption of mortgage upon said real estate given by the grantor to Charles Ridgely, dated February 29th, 1896, for Forty Five Hundred Dollars ($4,500.00) and of which there remains a balance of only Fifteen Hundred Dollars, which sum of $1,500, together with all interest to accrue thereon from and after the date of the deed the grantee assumed and agreed to pay as part of the consideration in said deed.

I further find that on the 5th day of December 1896, Lloyd W. Brown, widower, in consideration of Eighteen Thousand Dollars conveyed to D. Rees Browning the South West Quarter and the North half of the South East quarter of section twenty seven (27) Township Fifteen (15) North and Range Eight (8) West of the Third Principal Meridian containing Two Hundred and Forty acres, more or less, in Sangamon County, Illinois. The same being the land mortgaged to the grantee, and the above consideration being the mortgage debt therein.

I further find that on July 8th, 1905, D. Rees Browning, bachelor, conveyed to Edward W. Brown, in consideration of the exchange of other property and one dollar in hand paid, the following real estate situated in Sangamon County, Illinois, to-wit: The South West quarter of Section Twenty-Seven; The North half of the South East quarter of Section Twenty-Seven; all in Township Fifteen (15) North and Range Eight (8) West of the Third Principal Meridian; Also, the following real estate situated in Morgan County, Illinois, to-wit: The South half of the East Quarter of Section Thirty-Three (33) in the aforesaid Township and Range; Also the North East quarter of Section Four (4) in Township fourteen (14) north and Range Eight (8) West of the Third Principal Meridian, containing altogether, four hundred and eighty four (484) acres, according to Government Survey.

I further find that Edward W. Brown and Ruth Brown his wife, on the 8th day of July, 1905, conveyed by Warranty Deed to D. Rees Browning, for and in consideration of the Exchange of other property and Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) in hand paid, the following described real estate, situated in Sangamon County, Illinois, to-wit: The West half of the fractional South West quarter of Section Thirty (30) in Township Fifteen (15) North and Range Seven (7) West of the Third Principal Meridian, containing seventy-five and one-half (75 1/2) acres; part of the West half of the North West quarter of Section Thirty-One (31) in said Township and Range, bounded and described as follows: Commencing at the North West Corner of said half quarter section; running thence South Forty (40) links, thence East to the East line of said half quarter section; thence North to the North East corner of said half quarter section, and thence west to the place of beginning; also, the South half of Section Twenty-five (25) in Township Fifteen (15) North and Range Eight (8) West of the Third Principal Meridian, containing Three Hundred and Twenty (320) acres; the South East quarter of Section Twenty-six (26) in the last mentioned Township and Range containing One Hundred and Sixty (160) acres; the West half of the North East quarter of Section Twenty-Six (26) in Township Fifteen (15) North and Range Eight (8) West of the Third Principal Meridian, except so much thereof as is now occupied and used by the Wabash Railroad Company as a right of way; also part of the North West quarter of the North West quarter of said Section Twenty-six (26), bounded and described as follows: Beginning at the intersection of the North line of the right of way of the Wabash Railroad Company as now used and occupied, with the East line of said quarter quarter section; thence running West along the North line of said right of way, seven hundred and ten (710) feet; thence North two Hundred and Forty-Five (245) feet; thence East parallel with the North line of said right of way, seven hundred and ten (710) feet, more or less, to the East line of said quarter section; and thence South Two Hundred and Forty-Five (245) feet, to the place of beginning, containing four (4) acres, more or less; also all right, title and interest of the grantors in and to the following described parcels of land, to-wit: The right of way which was conveyed by William M. Warren and wife to Lloyd W. Brown, by Deed dated January 5, 1876 and recorded in the office of the Recorder of Sangamon County, Illinois, in Book 57 of Deeds at page 110; and also a strip of ground conveyed to the grantor, Edward W. Brown, by William D. Chilton and wife, by deed dated November 2, 1888, and recorded in the office of the Recorder of Sangamon County, Illinois, in Book 84 of Deeds at page 432, said two parcels of land constituting a strip of ground about forty (40) feet wide and One Hundred and Sixty (160) rods long, on or near the East side of the East half of the North West quarter of Section Twenty-Five (25) in Township Fifteen (15) North and Range Eight (8) West of the Third Principal Meridian.

I further find that the complaint, ant Sallie Browning Orear, formerly Sallie Browning, and her brothers, D. Rees Browning, and Marcus E. Browning, Jr., now both deceased, entered into an agreement and arrangement whereby they all agreed that a dairy and truck farm should be conducted and that the same should be done by Marcus E. Browning, Jr., and the complainant, and that D. Rees Browning should engage in other business, and that all the money that the three could save in all their occupations should be put into a common fund and that the same fund should be placed in the hands of D. Rees Browning, to be held as the property of the three in equal shares, and invested by the said D. Rees Browning in the interest of the three, and that the same should finally be invested in land in the name of D. Rees Browning, but for the equal benefit of the three.

I find that thereupon a dairy and truck farm was conducted and the work alone and care of the same taken by Marcus E. Browning, Jr., and the complainant and that D. Rees Browning worked in the bank and then in the Post Office and that all the money that was made and saved in the dairy and truck business and by D. Rees Browning was placed in a common fund and all put in the hands of D. Rees Browning and held for the equal benefit of the three, and was finally invested in real estate and the title taken in the name of D. Rees Browning, but held by him for the three equally.

I find that prior to the year 1905, there had been invested in real estate by the said D. Rees Browning, and the title taken in his own name, the funds belonging to himself and the complainant in equal portions, and that the real estate then held by the said D. Rees Browning for himself and the complainant consisted of some Four Hundred and Eighty-four (484) acres of land in addition to the tract above described, which Four Hundred and Eighty-four (484) acres of land was situated partly in Morgan County and partly in Sangamon County. And I find that the same Four Hundred and Eighty-four (484) acres of land tho

I find that Marcus E. Browning, Jr., died in 1898, and that after his death, the complainant and the said D. Rees Browning continued to accumulate all they could and all of their accumulations were placed in the hands of D. Rees Browning, to be held by him for the equal benefit of the two; that is, equal benefit of the complainant and said D. Rees Browning.

I find that upon the death of the father and mother of the complainant and the said D. Rees Browning, the said D. Rees Browning and the complainant were the only heirs at law of Marcus E. Browning, Jr., and became the equal owners of all the shares of the said Marcus E. Browning in the funds and real estate that had been in the hands of the said D. Rees Browning, and held by him for the equal benefit of the complainant, himself and the said Marcus E. Browning, Jr.

I find that the following described real estate, situated in the County of Morgan and State of Illinois, to-wit: all that part of lot thirty nine (39) in College Grove Addition to the City of Jacksonville, included within the following limits, to-wit: beginning at the South West corner of said Lot Thirty-Nine (39), extending Eastward to a point half way between City Place and Asylum street, thence Northward two hundred and eleven (211) feet, thence Westward to City Place, thence Southward to the place of beginning, was prior to and at the date of the death of Marcus E. Browning, Jr. purchased with funds belonging equally to the three and held by the said D. Rees Browning for the equal benefit of himself, Marcus E. Browning, Jr., and the complainant, and that the three were equally interested in the above described real estate and that from that time until the death of the said D. Rees Browning, he, the said D. Rees Browning, held title to the said above described real estate in Morgan County, Illinois, for the equal benefit of himself and the complainant, and that the complainant was the equitable owner of an equal undivided one-half interest therein.

I find that prior to the year 1905, there had been invested in real estate by the said D. Rees Browning, and the title taken in his own name, the funds belonging to himself and the complainant in equal portions, and that the real estate then held by the said D. Rees Browning for himself and the complainant consisted of some Four Hundred and Eighty-four (484) acres of land in addition to the tract above described, which Four Hundred and Eighty-four (484) acres of land was situated partly in Morgan County and partly in Sangamon County. And I find that the same Four Hundred and Eighty-four (484) acres of land tho in the name of the said D. Rees Browning, was held by him for the equal interest of himself and his sister, the complainant, and that the complainant was then the equitable owner of an undivided one-half interest therein. I find that in the year 1905 the last above mentioned Four Hundred and Eighty-four (484) acres was by the said D. Rees Browning exchanged with one, E. W. Brown, for an equal number of acres of land in Sangamon County, Illinois described in the bill in this cause and that at the same time this said D. Rees Browning with funds belonging to himself and the complainant, he could parts purchased from the said E. W. Brown an additional quarter section of land, and that he took the title of the whole of the land that he thus obtained from the said E. W. Brown, both in exchange and that purchased, in his own name, but that he purchased the same with property and funds belonging to himself and the complainant in equal parts, and that one-half of the purchase price of the said lands was property and money belonging to the complainant.

That thereupon and upon the 8th day of July 1905, the said Edward W. Brown, and Ruth S. Brown, his wife, conveyed by deed of that date to D. Rees Browning the said last named tract of land situated in Sangamon County and State of Illinois, which is described as follows, to-wit: The West half of the fractional South West quarter of Section thirty (30) Township Fifteen (15) North and Range Seven (7) West of the Third Principal Meridian, containing Seventy-five and one-half (75 1/2) acres; also part of the West half of the North West quarter of Section Thirty-One (31) in said Township and Range, bounded and described as follows: Commencing at the North West corner of said half quarter Section, and running thence South Forty (40) links, thence East to the East line of said half quarter Section, thence North to the North East corner of said half quarter Section, and thence West to the place of beginning; Also the South half of Section Twenty-five (25) Township Fifteen (15) North and Range Eight (8) West of the Third Principal Meridian, containing Three Hundred and Twenty (320) acres; also the South East quarter of Section Twenty-six (26) in the last mentioned Township and Range, containing One Hundred and Sixty (160) acres; also the West half of the North East quarter of said Section Twenty-Six (26) in the Township and Range last aforesaid, except so much thereof as is now occupied and used by the Wabash Railroad Company, as a right of way; also a part of the North West quarter of the North West quarter of said Section Twenty-Six (26) in the Township and Range last aforesaid, bounded and described as follows:

I find that at the time of the purchase of the said last above described parcels of land by the said D. Rees Browning, one half of the purchase price paid by the said D. Rees Browning to the said Edward W. Brown was owned by the complainant, and I conclude that upon the conveyance thereof to the said D. Rees Browning, as above mentioned, a resulting trust arose in her favor and the complainant became the equitable owner of the equal undivided one-half part thereof.

I find and conclude that the complainant is the owner of the undivided one half part of all the real estate described in the bill and above described, and that The Farmers State Bank and Trust Company as Trustee, is the owner of the other undivided one-half part of said real estate, and that the complainant is entitled to a decree of partition as prayed for in the bill.

And I recommend a decree of partition in accordance with the prayer of the bill.

All of which is respectfully submitted, this June 20th, 1916.
John F. Clark,
Special Master in Chancery.

MASTER IN CHANCERY
FINDS FOR MRS. OREAR

DECLARES SHE WAS PARTNER
IN D. R. BROWNING'S
PROPERTY

Effect is to Nullify Provisions in the Browning Will and Give Complainant Half Interest in Property—Finding Based on Testimony of Witnesses From Kentucky Who Told of Statements By Deceased—Case Will Now Be Fought Out in Courts.

John F. Clark, special master in chancery appointed to hear the evidence in the partition suit brought by Mrs. Sallie Browning Orear against the Farmers State Bank & Trust company, made his report Wednesday finding in favor of Mrs. Orear. In the lengthy opinion filed Mr. Clark bases his finding upon the statements of certain witnesses who came here from Kentucky to testify in the hearing. Their testimony was given to support the contention of Mrs. Orear's attorneys that the funds from which the real estate Mr. Browning held at the time of his death had been purchased, were in reality funds of a partnership existing between Mr. Browning and his sister, Mrs. Orear. The master looks upon the statements made by these witnesses as the most essential given and his finding is based upon the theory of partnership funds outlined in the testimony mentioned. The finding fully supports the allegations made in the original bill of complaint as filed by the attorneys for Mrs. Orear.

The effect of the report is to give Mrs. Orear in accordance with her claim a full one-half interest in the property of her deceased brother. The estate consists in the main of 640 acres of valuable farm land lying in the vicinity of Island Grove. The report, of course, does not at all mean the end of the case, as exceptions to the master's report will now be tried in the circuit court. It is practically certain also that the case, because of the large amount involved, will reach the higher courts. The master's finding practically nullifies the will left by Mr. Browning and provides for a different distribution of the property than that set forth in the lengthy will which was placed on record a few weeks following the death of Mr. Browning in May, 1914.

In the hearing before the master a statement left by Mr. Browning setting forth facts about his life, tracing the history of the family from the days when they came from Kentucky, was introduced as evidence. The master's finding takes the opposite view of the case indicated by that document, which might be considered as the evidence of Mr. Browning had he been alive. At the time the partition suit was filed, another suit was also brought to set aside the will of Mr. Browning on the allegation that he was not of sound mind when the document was drawn. Yesterday this case was dismissed by attorneys for Mrs. Orear. Under Mr. Browning's will the Farmers State Bank & Trust company was designated as executor and trustee. One provision of the will was that from the earnings of the estate $1,200 was to be paid annually to Mrs. Orear. A further provision...

MATRIMONIAL

Carroll-Buckley
A beautiful church wedding was solemnized Wednesday morning at nine o'clock at the Church of Our Saviour, with Miss Mae Carroll of 817 Rount street and John J. Buckley of 752 Hardin avenue as the contracting parties. A large company of relatives and friends were present and Father Formaz said the nuptial mass. The young people were attended by Miss Rose Carroll, sister of the bride and Bernard Dollear a friend of the groom.

The bride's gown was of white satin with a net overdress. She wore a tulle veil and carried a bouquet of Easter lilies as she went to the altar.

At the close of the ceremony an elaborate wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Carroll. The house was tastefully decorated and many were the presents received by the happy couple. One of the features of the breakfast was the cutting of the bride's cake. The ring was drawn by Miss Louise Carroll, the dime by the bride's mother and the needle by John Robinson. Following the breakfast the young people made ready for the wedding trip. They left on the four o'clock train for St. Louis where they will remain about a week.

Both of these young people are well known in this city, having lived here since childhood and are members of two well known families in this city. They were educated in the parochial schools and have always been active in church and social life.

Mrs. Buckley is a young lady of splendid character and sunny disposition. She is well known in the city and has a host of friends. The groom is a young man who is held in the highest esteem by all who know him. He has been working for the last five months in Alton.

The bride and groom will make their home in Alton where the groom is employed as a machinist in the Western Cartridge Company's plant. Their many friends will wish them continued happiness in their new home.

W. B. MISER WILL BECOME COMMERCIAL MANAGER OF I. T. S.

Local Utility Superintendent to Assume New Duties July 1.—E. H. Gray of El Paso Named as Successor.

Announcement was made from the general office of the Illinois traction system yesterday of the appointment of W. B. Miser of this city to be commercial manager for the Illinois Traction System. Mr. Miser's position here as superintendent of Jacksonville properties of the traction company will be taken by E. H. Gray of El Paso. The change will be effective July 1. The position to which Mr. Miser will go with headquarters at Peoria means an advancement from the local position with larger responsibility and a greater salary. He will devote himself to development of business for the company in all of the cities where the company owns utilities interests. Mr. Miser came to Jacksonville three years ago and during his superintendency the business of the utility company here has shown a substantial growth in all departments. During his superintendency the gas and electric plants have been rebuilt and a modern ice plant established. The improvements made have represented a larger expenditure on the part of the company than had been made for a long period. The development of business was commensurate with the improvements and Mr. Miser's superintendency has been marked by great activity.

From the beginning of his residence here Mr. Miser has taken an active part in various public enterprises and has proved himself at all times thoroughly interested in the welfare of the company. That his faithfulness to the company and the energy and ability shown have been appreciated is indicated by the new position which he is to fill. In leaving Jacksonville Mr. Miser will take with him the good wishes of a very large number of friends. Since he is to still be with the company and devote his energies to all the properties he will still be quite a frequent visitor in the city.

Mr. Gray, who will assume the superintendency of the local company July 1, is said to be a very capable and practical man. For some years he owned light plants in El Paso, Gridley, Chenoa and Lexington, all not far distant from Bloomington. Two years or more since he sold out his properties to the McKinley Syndicate and since that time has been in charge of the properties he sold as a superintendent for the company. Mr. Gray has a family and they will undoubtedly become valued residents of Jacksonville.

R. S. NELSON DIED WEDNESDAY AT COLLEGE AVENUE HOME

Deceased Proved Loyalty by War Enlistment as a Mere Boy—Spent Entire Life in This State.

Robert Stuart Nelson, a well-known resident of Jacksonville, died at his home on West College avenue about noon Wednesday, June 21. Mr. Nelson had been in failing health for a number of years but his final illness was not of long duration. Several years ago he suffered a severe attack but subsequently rallied and was able afterward to attend to business affairs. The strength he displayed in the combat with disease and the cheerful spirit he ever maintained were indicative of the sturdy character of the man. Mr. Nelson was born March 9, 1847, in Brighton, Ill. He was of Scotch ancestry and was a son of Robert Stuart Nelson and Eliza Kelsea Nelson. He spent his early life in Brighton, Woodburn, and Hillsboro, this state. At the beginning of the war of the Rebellion he was too young for service but in the final year when the call for 100 day men was given he enlisted, altho he was but seventeen years of age. He served until the close of the great conflict, when he was mustered out of service and received the honorable discharge and thanks of congress that was accorded to those who served their country at that time.

A short time after the close of the war Mr. Nelson engaged in the grain business and which occupied his attention for the greater part of the time in all the succeeding years. April 4, 1872, Mr. Nelson was married to Harriet A. Jones of Litchfield, and for the past twenty years the family home has been in this city. The deceased is survived by his wife and two sons, Major Kent Nelson of the medical corps of the U. S. army, and Wayne S. Nelson at home. Mr. Nelson was a man whose sturdy strength of character gave him the respect of all who knew him and the news of his death will come as a sorrow to many.

The time of the funeral has not yet been set, as word is awaited from Major Nelson.

Estate Is To Be Paid $4,090 Damages—Will Receive Additional Sum From Benefit Fund.

The suit of L. P. Fisher, as administrator of the estate of Theodore Fisher, against the C. B. & Q. railroad was settled by agreement Wednesday morning. By the terms of this agreement the company will pay the plaintiff $4,090 and the costs of the case, not to exceed $35. In addition the estate will receive about $1,200 from the Burlington insurance fund. This is not paid by the company but is the fund which the company employs support, with assistance from the company. This fund would have been paid the estate no matter what the result of the suit brought against the railroad. When the case was called Wednesday morning attorneys asked Judge Burton for a brief delay on account of pending negotiations for a settlement and shortly afterward the court was informed of the agreement and entered the order accordingly.

The case of C. B. Graff against E. E. Fox et al, was called for hearing Wednesday afternoon and by agreement was taken from the call and the hearing set for Friday afternoon. Dunlap the formal order granting rights of citizenship to Mr. Jenkinson was entered. In the circuit court the case of Miss Nettie Orear vs. William Bockling is on trial. The complainant is represented by J. P. Lippincott and Paul Samuelli and the defendant is represented by Kirby, Wilson & Brockhouse. CAPT. OWEN HERE TO DIRECT RECRUITING WORK OF MILITIA

Seeks To Bring Company B. to Full War Strength—Recruits Likely to Come Quickly Because of Prospect of Active Service.

Capt. L. P. Owen came down from Springfield Wednesday to take charge of Company B. Capt. Owen in conversation with a reporter for the Journal said that he had no fear of not being able to recruit the company up to war strength, which is 140 men. The captain said that it usually difficult to get men to enlist for a three year period of service in the state militia. Now, however, when it seem to be certain of active service he believes the recruits will come in rapidly.

Capt. Owen and Lieutenants Hale and Dickson were all at the armory Wednesday evening and drilling was had and other matters pertaining to a prompt movement of the company on receipt of orders were discussed.

Notification was received by Capt. Owen from Colonel C. P. Centers of Quincy to hold his company in readiness and keep drilling as there was no doubt but that the Fifth Regiment will be included in the mobilization order. If the order comes to entrain the company will be received with its present quota of 65 men but it is probable that it will be to full strength in a few days.

At Armory Hall Second Lieutenant Harrison Dickson is in charge of the recruiting and Sergeant John Capps, drill sergeant, will pass upon the physical fitness of the men.

In his instructions Capt. Owen is required to ask every applicant as to his willingness to serve outside of the United States.
